- Click Search

Initial search results displayed.

You can now narrow down your search results using various filters located on the left-hand side of the page.

- Under Source Type, click on More (from the left-hand side navigation menu)
Tick to include:

- Scholarly Journals
- Trade Journals
- Magazines

Note: 'Trade Journals' and 'Magazines' are publications by professional or industry bodies or associations. Insearch students are encouraged to use 'Trade Journals' and 'Magazines' as they tend to be more accessible than Scholarly Journals.
• Click Apply

Filtered search results displayed.

• You can narrow the results down ever further.

Notice that one of the filters on the left-hand side of the results page is called Publication Date.

You can drag the slider to the right-hand side to limit the results to, let’s say, last 5 years.

• Click Update

Filtered search results displayed.

• Browse the results.

If a particular article title interests you, click on the Preview button to examine the abstract.
If the abstract interests you and you would like to look at the full-text of the article, click on Full text – PDF.

You can Download PDF or Email the article to yourself.
